

Hudson Community YART Sale!

An Art and Craft Sale in your yard.

Seeking craftspeople and artists who are interested in selling their handmade products.

Friends of the Hudson Public Library is hosting our 1st annual YART sale. Our goal is to raise money for the Hudson Public Library while providing a shopping experience for the community and supporting our local artists and crafters.

All artists and crafters can keep 100% of their sales. Friends of the Library will publicize the YART sale. We will also create and distribute a map of seller locations.

To register, please complete and return the information below to HudsonYartSale@gmail.com or by mail to the address below. The fee to participate is $25.00. Please mail a check with your registration made out to Friends of the Hudson Public Library or pay via PayPal here:
